

Curriculum Vitae

Julia Dannath-Schuh

Nationality	German
Date of birth	16 May 1977
Marital status	married, three children

Employment

2008–June 2020	Manres AG, Zurich Most recently CEO, Partner and Shareholder Consultant for Leadership, Corporate Culture and Transformation Processes
2006–2007	MH-Consulting, Cologne, Germany Consultant for Organisational and Leadership Development
2006	ETH Zurich Scientific Assistant, Behavioural Psychology section of the Department of Humanities, Social and Political Sciences

Background information

Education

2018–2019	University of St.Gallen (HSG) Executive Master of Business Administration
2003–2005	Gesellschaft für Gesprächspsychotherapie, Hamburg, Germany Training in “client-centred psychotherapy”
2002–2007	University of Tübingen, Germany Doctoral studies focusing on agile knowledge acquisition using digital multimedia learning methods
1996–2000	Saarland University, Germany Diploma in Psychology

Selected publications

Gorbach A., Dannath-Schuh, J., Cusumano, F. (2019) Orientation for Leaders, Freiburg, Haufe Verlag.

Johner, P. (2010), Transforming Leaders, Freiburg, Haufe Verlag. (Book chapter)

Selected scholarships and awards

2018	Scholarship for Excellence in Leadership (50%) and Scholarship for Female Leadership (50%), EMBA, University of St. Gallen
2002	Doctoral scholarship of the virtual graduate college of the German Research Foundation

A passion for leadership

Julia Dannath holds a doctorate in psychology and has many years of experience in consulting for organisations in Europe, Asia and the United States to assist them in developing their leadership culture. She has made it her mission to help institutions create and maintain positive working cultures, which in turn enhances performance and commitment. She strives to find solutions that effect sensible and lasting change.